Welcome to OregonTruckingOnline.com Form 735-32 is a label of the Oregon Traffic Accident and Insurance Report, the obligatory form for drivers who got involved in a traffic accident. This document is called to provide a detailed description of an accident's circumstances, weather conditions, the technical state of a vehicle, driver's status, and other detail. If an accident involves 2 drivers, any extra documents are not needed. If there are 3 or more drivers, it's obligatory to provide Form 735-32B (Supplemental Report). In case one of the vehicles belongs to a commercial vehicle holder or one of the vehicles is towed from the place of an accident, Form 735-9229 (Motor Carrier Crash Report) must be attached too. What I need Form 735-32 for? Form 735-32: Must be submitted by all drivers who are involved in an accident on highways and other open public areas of Oregon. Is needed if damage to the submitter's property is over $1500 or any involved vehicle need repairment for over $1500, and there was no way to remove it without a towtruck. Is necessary if an accident results with any type of injury or death. The submission deadline is 72 hours after the registered time of an accident. All parties of an accident must file the report independently from their state within the period. Third-party and relatives' assistance is allowed. Filling out Form 735-32 The filled-out form must include information about the precise date and time, location (city, street, zip), applicant's driver's license number, personal ID information, vehicle type definition, information about pedestrians and cyclists if any, other details (driver and road conditions, applicant's intentions, etc.), and the detailed description of an accident. Organizations that work with Form 735-32 Local DMV Accident Report Units. It can feel like a whirlwind of events after a car accident occurs. Injuries may need to be treated. The police are asking lots of questions to gather information. It's a high-stress environment that can make your head spin. Fortunately, the police are there to help you through the situation. One of their duties is to complete a detailed police report. This is information will help you as you fill out your car accident report. In this article, we go over the importance of this article and how you should go about submitting it. If the accident results in death, injury, property damage exceeding $1,500, or if any vehicle is towed from the accident scene, then you must file an accident report to the Oregon DMV. You have 72 hours to report the accident to the Oregon DMV. Keep in mind: police reports do not count. Even though the police have filed a report, you still need to file an accident report with the DMV. The Oregon accident report requires a lot of information. You can see the report here. Here are some of the key things you will need to fill out on the form: Name, address and phone number of all drivers and passengers involved in the accident Driver's license numbers of all drivers Make, model, year and color of all involved vehicles License plate numbers of all involved vehicles Registration information of all involved vehicles Estimated monetary damages to the vehicles that were involved Insurance information from each involved driver Location of the accident Date and time of the accident Conditions during the time of accident (wet roads, inclement weather, etc.) Now that we know a little bit more about the accident report, let's go over the steps of properly submitting it. As we mentioned above, you can view and complete the form online here. You can also pick up a form at your local police department or your local DMV office. Once you have completed the form, you need to deliver the form to your local DMV office. Be sure to keep a copy of your accident report for your records. If you are unable to get to your local DMV office in person, you can mail the form into this address: DMV - Accident Reporting Unit 1905 Lana Ave. NE Salem, OR 97314 If you plan to take legal action in regards to your car accident, don't hesitate to reach out to a Personal Injury Attorney.
